

Hart High School will Prepare its Graduates to be

CULTURALLY AWARE INDIVIDUALS WHO:

- Realize their own self-worth
- Respect individual differences and perspectives
- Encourage self-esteem in others
- Display a global view of the world upon a solid base of knowledge
- Respond positively to cultural diversity
- Value the historical contributions of diverse ethnic, racial, and religious groups to the United States

ACADEMICALLY COMPETENT LEARNERS WHO:

- Demonstrate success in challenging subject matter appropriate to their capabilities
- Function successfully in a technologically-oriented world
- Plan for lifelong learning
- Demonstrate competency in reading, writing, and mathematics
- Recognize the value of the arts and sciences, humanities, and physical education

PRODUCTIVE INDIVIDUALS WHO:

- Demonstrate adaptability and flexibility
- Exhibit effective time-management skills
- Establish a physically fit and emotionally secure lifestyle
- Follow directions
- Work well in team situations toward a common goal
- Exhibit self-discipline
- Make responsible decisions
- Demonstrate self-sufficiency in preparation for survival in a highly competitive world
- View integrity as a critical personal value

EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATORS WHO:

- Listen to others
- Initiate, receive, and respond effectively
- Utilize technology as a communications device
- Employ reading as a basic communications tool
- Express personal opinions with confidence
- Demonstrate conflict resolution skills

PERCEPTIVE INDIVIDUALS WHO:

- Demonstrate critical thinking capabilities
- Set personal goals
- Access and analyze resources effectively
- Employ creative thinking in a confident manner
- Solve problems

INVOLVED CITIZENS WHO:

- Demonstrate respect for the rights of others
- Know the rights, duties, and privileges of United States citizenship
- Participate in collaborative community events
- Demonstrate responsibility for their immediate environment
- Show a sense of civic-minded commitment

